JohnTrotto. I am in the market for a 67 or 68 V8, Manual Mustang. I have noticed the manuals are a bit more rare than the autos, so I have been looking into what it would take to do the auto to manual swap. If I can get an auto cheap enough, it might be worth it to me to do the swap. Plus it seems I would like the T5 alot more than the stock 4 ...

1965 - 66 Mustang. For a 1965 - 1966 Mustang we recommend a T-5 transmission for engines making under 450hp. The T-5 fits much better than a larger TREMEC TKO due to clearance issues with the transmission tunnel. TKO transmissions can be installed but it requires modifying the transmission tunnel. A T5 swap in these cars is straight forward ...

If you need to put your Mustang in reverse, then you want other drivers to know. Fortunately, you have a backup light installed. A simple switch triggers the backup light when you put your transmission in reverse. If this switch stops functioning, your reverse light won't come on. Leaving other drivers in the dark about your intent.

By Christopher Campbell . There are a several transmission options on the market when it comes to overdrive manual trans swaps in classic Mustangs, but our favorite for street and mild autocross and track use is the good 'ol Tremec T5 for engines with less that 450hp. That's not only because they enjoy a long history of being reliable and lasting a nearly forever when properly cared for, but ...
