Kumaravadivelu presents a macrostrategic framework designed to help both beginning and experienced teachers develop a systematic, coherent, and personal theory of practice. His book provides the tools a teacher needs in order to self-observe, self-analyze, and self-evaluate his or her own teaching acts. The framework consists of ten macrostrategies based on current theoretical, empirical, and experiential knowledge of second language and foreign language teaching.

There are three teaching methods that dominate the business of language instruction: the Direct Method, the Grammar-Translation Method, and the Audio-Lingual Method.

Deciding which is the best method is difficult because each has strengths and weaknesses, and the nature of a student's goals will determine which is best for that student.

The Grammar-Translation Method. This method was the most common way of learning languages for centuries and is still used in many situations and countries.

The Grammar-Translation method of teaching English as a second language focuses mostly on teaching students about the language but not how to use it practically.
