This year, I made up a little Halloween poem to go outside on the porch next to our candy bowl. It's a short little saying to tell the kids to take a Halloween treat when they stop by our house on trick or treat night and we aren't home. I printed it out to 8x10 size and put it in a frame. The sign reads:
Although we're not home

Spooky Poems For Halloween. Halloween began as a holiday for individuals who practiced the occult. It has since turned into something completely different. Halloween is about the fun of dressing up and pretending to be someone else for a night. Trick-or-treating and children gorging themselves on way too much candy.
