In The Devil's Cave Bruno is up against slick Parisians who want to build an upmarket holiday village and at the same time he has to solve the mystery of a dead woman in a punt with a dead cockerel. Obviously the Parisians underestimate Bruno as they have the stereotypical city contempt for the

THE DEVIL ' s CAVE is another good entry into the series. I ' m addicted to the French Police Chief and his small village in the South of France. As in prior books, there are several mysteries, usually a local one and one perpetrated by outsiders. History and modern politics are woven into the plots.
